

HORIZONS ETFs ANNOUNCES RESULTS OF ROBO UNITHOLDER MEETING

TORONTO – June 14, 2018 – Horizons ETFs Management (Canada) Inc. (the “Manager”) is pleased to announce that at a special meeting (the “Meeting”) held on June 8, 2018, unitholders of the Horizons Robotics and Automation Index ETF (the “ETF”) have overwhelmingly approved a proposed change to the ETF’s investment objective. The ETF trades on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) in both Canadian and U.S. dollars under the ticker symbols ROBO and ROBO.U, respectively.

Approved Changes to the Investment Objective of ROBO

As described in further detail in the management information circular dated April 24, 2018 (the “Circular”), the proposal put forward to unitholders was to approve a change in the investment objective to replace the underlying index whose performance the ETF seeks to replicate, net of expenses.

Under the current investment objective, the ETF seeks to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of the ROBO Global[®] Robotics and Automation Index (the “Current Index”), net of expenses.

At the Meeting, unitholders approved a change to the underlying index of the ETF from the Current Index to the Indxx Global Robotics & Artificial Intelligence Thematic Index (the “New Index”). The new investment objective, when implemented, will be as follows:

The ETF seeks to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of the Indxx Global Robotics & Artificial Intelligence Thematic Index, net of expenses. The Indxx Global Robotics & Artificial Intelligence Thematic Index is designed to provide exposure to the performance of equity securities of companies that are involved in the development of robotics and/or artificial intelligence. The ETF seeks to hedge the U.S. dollar value of its portfolio to the Canadian dollar at all times.

The Manager expects that the change to the New Index will take place on or about June 29, 2018. At that time, the ETF’s ticker symbol will change from ROBO to RBOT and its management fee will be reduced from 0.75% to 0.68% (plus applicable taxes).
