Horizons US Marijuana Index ETF

Access the World’s First U.S.-Focused Marijuana Index ETF
The Horizons US Marijuana Index ETF (“HMUS”) seeks to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of the US Marijuana Companies Index (the “Index”), net of expenses. The Index is designed to provide exposure to the performance of a basket of North American publicly-listed life sciences companies having significant business activities in, or significant exposure to, the United States marijuana or hemp industries.

A U.S. Industry Listed In Canada
While marijuana cultivation is legal at the state level in many U.S. states, it remains federally illegal, making it difficult for U.S. companies to have securities listed on stock exchanges. Despite the regulatory restrictions, the marijuana industry in the United States continues to see strong growth potential.

In 2021, the U.S. legal marijuana market size was estimated at USD $10.08 billion and is now expected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 14.9% from 2022 to 2030. Many of these U.S.-domiciled companies have opted for Canadian securities listings to take advantage of full capital markets support since marijuana use is fully legal in Canada.1

Globally, there are a growing number of businesses involved in the Cannabis industry (beyond cultivation and distribution), making it possible to invest in companies without directly investing in cannabis itself. According to a report from Grand View Research, the global legal Cannabis market was valued at $17.8 billion in 2021 with an expected compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 25.3% from 2022-2030, assuming recreational marijuana becomes fully legal in the United States by that time. A fully-legal U.S. Marijuana market would also hypothetically become the largest Marijuana market in the world.²

Key Features

- Focus on Cultivation: The portfolio is comprised primarily of marijuana or hemp production companies
- Significant Exposure to U.S. Companies: At inception, HMUS provides exposure to a diversified group of over 30 American companies within the industry
- ETF Liquidity: HMUS trades throughout the trading day as one security instead of trying to manage multiple stock positions in an emerging sector where liquidity can be a concern
- Rebalanced Quarterly: Quarterly rebalances seek to ensure the composition of HMUS reflects the changing leadership and drivers of growth within the industry
